Compulsory acquisition advice

- What This policy guides valuers who provide advice on behalf of the Valuer General for land that is subject to or may become subject to a compulsory acquisition.
- How Under this policy, valuers make decisions on the type of advice that can be provided where land is or may become subject to compulsory acquisition.
- Why This policy will ensure that the Valuer General's role in the compulsory acquisition process is independent and that any advice that is provided does not conflict with that independence.

1 Policy

1.1 Scope

Pre-acquisition valuation advice

Use this policy to determine if valuation advice on behalf of the Valuer General should be provided for lands that may become compulsorily acquired.

General advice

Use this policy to determine the appropriate process for providing advice on behalf of the Valuer General where land is currently being acquired or may become compulsorily acquired.

Treasurer's Directions 469.02 and 469.03

Treasurer's Directions 469.02 and 469.03 describe the basis for transferring land between Government Authorities. It is common practice for Authorities to agree that Valuation Services, Property NSW on behalf of Valuer General provide a determination of compensation to facilitate the transfer.

Land acquired through this process is not covered by this policy.

1.2 Directions

Pre-acquisition valuation advice

Valuation advice is not to be provided where it is reasonably foreseeable that the land may become subject to compulsory acquisition.

More specifically no valuation advice is to be provided for land that is designated or reserved for a public purpose.

General advice

acquiring authority matters of principle

General advice to landholders and others stakeholders concerning the Valuer General's role, the operation of the Land Acquisition (Just Terms Compensation) Act 1991 and the Acquisition process may be provided on request.

More specific advice concerning matters of principle that may impact a determination of compensation can be provided in the following circumstances:

- where the landholder and the acquiring authority both write to the Valuer General requesting his or her opinion on a matter of principle

- where those letters include:
  - a clear description of the circumstances
  - each party’s view including areas of agreement and disagreement.

A response will be provided to both parties on a without prejudice basis.

Matters of opinion concerning value will not be provided.

3 Context

3.1 Role of the Valuer General

The Valuer General for NSW

The Valuation of Land Act 1916 establishes the Valuer General as the independent statutory authority responsible for ensuring the integrity of land valuations in NSW.

Both the Valuation of Land Act and the Land Acquisition (Just Terms Compensation) Act 1991 require the Valuer General to provide a determination of compensation following the compulsory acquisition of land.

Land and Property Information manages the valuation system and determinations made for compulsory acquisition on behalf of the Valuer General, outsourcing the majority of valuation services to private valuation firms.

The Valuer General is committed to an open and transparent valuation process that is easy for stakeholders to understand.

3.2 Background

Valuation advice

The Valuer General is required to determine the amount of compensation to be offered to a person having an interest in land that is compulsorily acquired.

It is this requirement that precludes the provision of pre-acquisition advice as such advice may conflict or appear to conflict with a determination made following compulsory acquisition.

General advice

The Valuer General is an expert on the requirements of the Land Acquisition (Just Terms Compensation) Act 1991 and the principles of its application. It is appropriate that where possible such expertise can be utilised to resolve issues on a without prejudice basis.

Making information available and providing advice on matters of principal is an effective way of improving the acquisition process.

The independence of the Valuer General's role shall be maintained at all times.
